INSTRUCTIONS – SCHEDULES A-1 and A-2 INVESTMENTS

"Investment" means any financial interest in any business entity located in or doing business in your agency's jurisdiction (see Appendix) in which you, your spouse, or your dependent children had a direct, indirect, or beneficial interest aggregating $1,000 or more at any time during the reporting period.

Reportable investments include:

- Stocks, bonds, warrants, and options, including those held in margin or brokerage accounts.
- Business trusts.
- Sole proprietorships.
- Partnerships (e.g., law firm, family farm, etc.).
- Retirement accounts which hold investments in reportable business entities or real property (see Appendix).
- Investments held by a business entity or trust (including a living trust) in which you, your spouse, or dependent children had a 10% or greater ownership interest.

You are not required to disclose the following:

- Bank accounts, savings accounts, and money market accounts.
- Insurance policies.
- Shares in a credit union.
- Government bonds.
- Diversified mutual funds registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC).
- Retirement accounts invested in non-reportable interests such as insurance policies, diversified mutual funds or government bonds (see Appendix).
- Interests held in a blind trust (see Appendix).

REMINDERS

- ✓ Do you know your agency's jurisdiction?
- ✓ Did you hold investments at any time during the period covered by this statement?
- ✓ Code filers - Your code may require disclosure of specific investments only.

Use Schedule A-1 to report investments if your ownership interest in the entity was less than 10% (e.g., utility stock). You may also be required to complete Schedule C.

Use Schedule A-2 to report investments in which your ownership interest in the entity was 10% or greater (e.g., sole proprietorship). (See instructions on the back of Schedule A-2.)

TO COMPLETE SCHEDULE A-1:

- Disclose the name of the business entity.
- Provide a general description of the business activity of the entity (e.g., pharmaceuticals, computers, automobile manufacturing, communications, etc.).
- Check the box indicating the fair market value of your investment (i.e., how much your investment was worth on the open market at its highest value during the period).
- Identify the nature of your investment (e.g., stocks, warrants, options, bonds).
- If you acquired or disposed of your investment interest during the reporting period, enter the date acquired or disposed.

Examples:

John Smith is a manager for a state agency. His conflict of interest code requires full disclosure of investments. John must disclose his stock holdings of $1,000 or more in any company that does business in California as well as those held by his spouse and dependent children.

Susan Jones is a city council member. She has a 4% interest in a limited partnership located in the city which is worth $5,000. Susan must disclose the partnership on Schedule A-1 and income of $250 or more received from the partnership on Schedule C.

Alice Howard supervises the purchasing department of a governmental agency. She owns stock in a utility company which only does business in New York. Alice is a code filer and her disclosure category requires reporting of investments of the type that supply services or supplies to the agency. She is not required to report the utility company stock because the company does not do business in her jurisdiction.

INSTRUCTIONS – SCHEDULE C
INCOME & BUSINESS POSITIONS
(Income Other than Loans, Gifts and Travel Payments)

All filers: Reportable income includes your gross income and your community property interest in your spouse's gross income aggregating $250 or more received from any source located in or doing business in your agency's jurisdiction (see Appendix). Gross income is the total amount of income before deducting expenses, losses or taxes.

Code filers only: If required under your agency's conflict of interest code, use Schedule C to report the job title or business position you held with a business entity covered by your disclosure category (i.e., if you were a director, officer, partner, trustee, employee, or held any position of management) during the period covered by the report. This requirement applies even if you received no income from the business entity during the period.

Commonly reportable income includes:

- Salary/wages, per diem, reimbursement for expenses.
- Community property interest (50%) in your spouse's income.
- Income received from investment interests (e.g., partnerships) reported on Schedule A-1.
- Commission income not required to be reported on Schedule A-2.
- Gross income from any sale, including the sale of a house or car. The total sale price is reportable regardless of any obligation you might have to pay on loans secured by the item.
- Rental income not required to be reported on Schedule B.
- Prizes or awards not disclosed as gifts.
- Payments received on loans you made to others.
- An honorarium received by any newly appointed official or newly designated employee in the 12 months prior to assuming office, or for a non-incumbent candidate, in the 12 months prior to filing the candidate statement of economic interests. (See the Appendix concerning your ability to receive future honoraria.)

You are not required to report:

- Your salary or your spouse's salary or reimbursement for expenses and per diem from a federal, state or local government agency.
- Campaign contributions.
- A cash devise or inheritance.
- Dividends, interest, or other return on a security (e.g., stocks, bonds) which is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission.
- Payments received under an insurance policy.
- Interest, dividends, or premiums on a time or demand deposit in a financial institution, shares in a credit union, an insurance policy, or a bond or other debt instrument issued by a government agency.
- Income of dependent children.

- Alimony or child support payments.
- Payments received under a defined benefit pension plan qualified under Internal Revenue Code Section 401(a).

TO COMPLETE SCHEDULE C:

- Disclose the name and address of each source of income or each business entity with which you held a business position.
- Provide a general description of the business activity of the source or business entity (e.g., retail sales, law firm).
- Code filers only: If required under your agency's conflict of interest code, disclose the job title or business position, if any, you held with a business entity.
- Check the box indicating the amount of gross income if you received $250 or more during the reporting period from the source or business entity.
- Identify the consideration for which the income was received.
- If your income is from commission sales, check the box indicating the gross income received and list the name of each source of commission income of $10,000 or more (see Appendix). If your income is from rental property (and the property is not required to be listed on Schedule B), enter "Rental Income" under "Name", check the box indicating the gross income received, and, if you had a 10% or greater interest in the rental property, list the name of each tenant if your pro rata share of the gross income from that tenant was $10,000 or more during the reporting period.

You are not required to disclose on Schedule C income reported on Schedule A-2 or B or business positions reported on Schedule A-2.

Example:

Jack West is a legislator and is an insurance agent for Grand Insurance Company. He has no ownership interest in the business. Jack received income of $50,000 from Grand Insurance Company. He also received commission income of $11,000 from a single client. He must report Grand Insurance Company. The Commission box must also be checked and the name of the client identified.

REMINDERS

- ✓ Do you know your agency's jurisdiction?
- ✓ Was the income received during the period covered by this statement?
- ✓ Code filers - Your code may require disclosure of income only from specified sources.

STRUCTIONS – SCHEDULE D
INCOME - LOANS
(Received or Outstanding)

Loans received or outstanding during the reporting period, which aggregate $250 or more from a single source located in or doing business in your jurisdiction (see Appendix), are reportable. Because loans are a type of income, your community property interest in loans received by your spouse must also be counted.

Commonly reportable loans include:

- Real estate loans.
- Margin accounts.
- Automobile loans and automobile leases.
- Campaign loans secured by your personal assets or for which you are personally liable.

You are not required to report the following:

- Any loan from a commercial lending institution used to purchase, refinance the purchase of, or for improvements to, your principal place of residence, if the loan was made in the lender's regular course of business on terms available to the public without regard to your official status. However, loans on other residences may be reportable.
- Loans from a commercial lending institution made in the lender's regular course of business on terms available to the public without regard to your official status which, in the aggregate, did not exceed $10,000 at any time during the reporting period.
- Any retail installment or credit card debts incurred in the creditor's regular course of business on terms available to the public without regard to your official status if the aggregate amount owed to the creditor did not exceed $10,000 at any time during the reporting period.
- Any loan from your spouse, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild, brother, sister, parent-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, nephew, niece, aunt, uncle, or first cousin or the spouse of any such person, except that a loan from any such person is reportable if the person is acting as an intermediary or agent for any person not covered by this provision.
- Loans made to others. However, repayments may be reportable on Schedule C.
- A loan you co-signed for another person unless you made payments on the loan during the reporting period.

TO COMPLETE SCHEDULE D:

- Provide the name and address of the lender.
- Check the appropriate box describing the lender's business activity.
- Disclose the interest rate. For variable interest rate loans, disclose the terms of the loan (e.g., Prime + 2) or the average interest rate paid during the reporting period.
- Check the box indicating the highest balance of the loan during the reporting period.
- Identify the security, if any, for the loan.

You are not required to disclose on Schedule D loans reported on Schedule A-2 or B.

Example:

Colleen Jones is a city council member. She received an equity loan on her principal place of residence in the amount of $15,000 from a commercial lending institution which she used to buy an automobile. Colleen must report the equity loan because the loan amount was over $10,000 and the money was not used to refinance or improve her principal residence.

REMINDERS

- ✓ Do you know your agency's jurisdiction?
- ✓ Did you receive any loans or have loans outstanding during the period covered by this statement?
- ✓ Code filers - Income includes any loan. Did you receive a loan from an entity or individual required to be reported as a source of income under your code?

INSTRUCTIONS - SCHEDULE E INCOME - GIFTS

"Gift" means anything of value, for which you have not provided equal or greater value to the donor. A gift is reportable if its fair market value is $50 or more. In addition, multiple gifts aggregating $50 or more received during the reporting period from a single source must be reported. Gifts are reportable without regard to where the donor is located.

It is the acceptance of a gift, not the ultimate use to which it is put, that imposes your reporting obligation. Therefore, except as noted below, you must report a gift even if you never used it or if you gave it away to another person.

If the exact amount of a gift is not known, you must make a good faith estimate of the item's fair market value. Listing the value of a gift as "over $50" or "value unknown" is not adequate disclosure. In addition, if you received a gift through an intermediary, you must disclose the name, address, and business activity of both the donor and the intermediary.

Commonly reportable gifts include:

- Tickets/passes to sporting or entertainment events.
- Tickets/passes to amusement parks.
- Parking passes.
- Food, beverages, and accommodations, including that provided in direct connection with your attendance at a convention, conference, meeting, social event, meal or like gathering, where you did not give a speech, participate in a panel or seminar, or provide a similar service.
- Rebates/discounts not made in the regular course of business to members of the public without regard to official status.
- Wedding gifts (see Appendix to determine how to value).
- An honorarium. You may report an honorarium as income on Schedule D, rather than as a gift, if you provided services of equal or greater value than the payment received. (See the Appendix regarding your ability to receive honoraria in the future.)
- Transportation and lodging (see Schedule F).
- Forgiveness of a loan received by you.

REMINDERS

- ✓ See the Appendix for gift and honoraria prohibitions.
- ✓ Code filers: Income includes any gift. Did you receive a gift from a reportable source?

You are not required to disclose the following:

- Gifts which were not used and which, within 30 days after receipt, were returned to the donor or delivered to a charitable organization without being claimed by you as a charitable contribution for tax purposes.
- Gifts from your spouse, child, parent, grandparent, grandchild, brother, sister, parent-in-law, brother-in-law, sister-in-law, aunt, uncle, niece, nephew, or first cousin or the spouse of any such person, provided that a gift from any such person must be disclosed if the person was acting as an agent or intermediary for a reportable source.
- Gifts of hospitality involving food, drink, or occasional lodging provided in an individual's home when the individual or a member of the individual's family was present.
- Gifts equal in value exchanged between you and an individual, other than a lobbyist, on holidays, birthdays, or similar occasions.
- Gifts of informational material provided to assist you in the performance of your official duties, such as books, pamphlets, reports, calendars, or periodicals.
- A cash devise or inheritance.
- Personalized plaques and trophies with an individual value of less than $250.
- Campaign contributions.
- Tickets to a fundraising event for a 501(c)(3) organization.
- Tickets to political fundraisers.
- Gifts given directly to members of your immediate family unless you received direct benefit from the gift or you exercised direction and control over the use or disposition of the gift.
- A pass or ticket which provided a one-time admission to an event (theater performance, sporting event) that was not used and is not transferred to another person. Commission Regulation 18946.1 provides a method for determining the value of a ticket or pass that was used or transferred to another person and for determining the value of a pass or tickets which provide repeated admission to facilities or services.
- Food, beverages, and accommodations provided directly in connection with an event at which you gave a speech, participated in a panel or seminar, or provided a similar service.

TO COMPLETE SCHEDULE E:

- Disclose the name and address and business activity, if any, for the source.
- Describe the gift and provide the fair market value of the gift and the date of receipt.
